Department Theme: Pattern and Design

Big Idea: Pattern and Design recognition is the first step in understanding how our world is constructed and functions. Science and math depend upon patterns and designs to comprehend the world of logic and design and direct the skills of problem solving and prediction.

(The theme of Pattern and Design cuts across specific content matter. By showing the interrelationship of different facts and ideas, the theme serves primarily as a pedagogical tool for the presentation of science/ math and social studies.)
